EXPERIENCE

Mr. Knox, Associate Attorney, joined D’Andre Law at their Oakland office in August 2012. His practice focuses on the resolution of factually and legally complex claims—including those involving strong suspicions of fraud, multiple parties, and unusual medical histories. In defending such claims, he believes in the importance of close coordination with adjusters and employers, aggressive discovery, and rapid resolutions.

Before joining D’Andre Law, Mr. Knox served as a law clerk with Carlson, Calladine & Peterson—a civil insurance defense firm handling complex litigation matters. In this capacity, Mr. Knox worked on professional liability matters, subrogation cases, and large-scale insurance claims.

It was during his years at the University of San Francisco School of Law that Mr. Knox developed a passion for litigation by taking classes relating to discovery practice, electronic discovery issues, and trial work. Mr. Knox was a member of the USF chapter of the San Francisco Trial Lawyers’ Association and served as research assistant to Professors Susan Freiwald and David Franklyn. In addition to his studies, Mr. Knox worked and interned on and around Capitol Hill.
