EXPERIENCE

Mr. Goncalves represents insurance carriers, third-party administrators, and employers in California workers' compensation matters at D'Andre Law LLP. He manages cases from initial referral through resolution, including depositions, medical-legal discovery, analysis of medical evidence, settlement negotiations, and lien disputes. He appears before Workers' Compensation Appeals Boards throughout Southern California and emphasizes thorough preparation, clear client communication, and practical litigation strategy.

Nathan began his practice in this area handling Defense Base Act claims before transitioning to California workers' compensation, where he has practiced for approximately three years. His background also includes an Equal Justice Works Fellowship at the Harriett Buhai Center for Family Law in Los Angeles, where he provided legal assistance to low-income disabled veterans and helped develop the Center's Veterans Family Law Project. Beyond his fellowship, Nathan advocated for veterans in Washington, D.C.

Nathan earned his undergraduate degree from the University of California, Los Angeles, and his Juris Doctor from UCLA School of Law. He was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2019. Before pursuing his legal education, he served five years in the United States Army as an infantryman, including a deployment to Iraq. He brings the discipline, adaptability, and commitment developed through his military service to his legal practice.

Outside of work, Nathan is an avid sneakerhead who enjoys building his collection and spending time with his family.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Nathan developed and presented a continuing legal education course addressing bias toward veterans with PTSD and other mental health conditions associated with military service. His veterans' advocacy has been featured by the University of California and on the Department of Veterans Affairs' Borne the Battle podcast.
